pagreen@mac.com Hey, is this the group chat?

jeff318: it will be pagreen@mac.com Okay.

jonnyoosting has entered the room.

pagreen@mac.com Hey Jon.

jonnyoosting: hola. no storm?

jeff318: i don't see phil online.

pagreen@mac.com We seem to be between storms.

jeff318: how many storms so far today, meg?

jeff318: we had two.

pagreen@mac.com One, but we're expecting another.

jeff318: ah okay

jonnyoosting: jeff - the thooof article is interesting. I like the idea of changing headlines and substituting articles on the same subject.

jeff318: http://www.nytimes.com/2007/06/18/business/media/18thooof.html?_r=1&oref=slogin interesting article to read while we wait jeff318: the articles-on-the-same-subject fits in with your context navigation idea jonnyoosting: true true jeff318: they also mention the personalization algorithm jeff318: like netflix

jonnyoosting: yeah, but of course, it took a team of ten cs geeks to put the thing into practice jeff318: hmm, sound familiar?

jonnyoosting: total rip of of ugottaseethis!

jonnyoosting: except not!

jeff318: i wonder how effective journalism / communications students can be as compared to cs geeks

jeff318: 😊

pagreen@mac.com Interesting article.

jonnyoosting: interestingly, one college got a knight grant specifically designed to lure cs geeks into a journalism masters program.

jeff318: im a bit afraid of how we are going to get this done without CS geeks... i guess there is some grant money left to pay them?

jonnyoosting: I guess. Ya'll just want to get rolling on this thing jonnyoosting: ?

jeff318: do we have a quorum?

pagreen@mac.com Did Ryan or Phil say they'd be late?

jeff318: i really dont think that we should narrow down our ideas without having 2 team members or a mentor.

pagreen@mac.com I agree.

jeff318: no, but i don't even know if ryan knew about this for sure.

jonnyoosting: i don't care really. this project takes enough time without waiting around for no-shows jonnyoosting: we posted it on the blog. everyone is supposed to be checking it. we do what we can.

pagreen@mac.com I know, but I feel like we should at least have Marjorie and one other person.

jonnyoosting: no one has heard from marjorie since the project started. have you?

pagreen@mac.com After all, we're all going to work on this together.

pagreen@mac.com No, I haven't. Should we send her a specific message?

jeff318: i mean, we probably could even combine the 23 ideas we have at this point and make 5... heh jonnyoosting: I guess.

jeff318: we should have 50 ideas, we have 23.

jonnyoosting: yeah. we're behind.

pagreen@mac.com What can I say, I'm used to working for quality, not quantity.

jeff318: i know... but it's also about brainstorming ideas jonnyoosting: yeah, more brains = more brainstorming.

pagreen@mac.com I know. My brain was just in drought, I guess. I wish we had more time to percolate.

jeff318: should i call marjorie and leave her a voicemail?

jeff318: 270-745-3035

jonnyoosting: sure pagreen@mac.com Might as well. We should get her on board.

pagreen@mac.com How about the other two?

jonnyoosting: i don't know where my numbers list went - do you have ryan's too. I'll call him.

pagreen@mac.com 270-929-3209

jonnyoosting: here's philip

jeff318: asked her to send us an email, letting us know what's up pagreen@mac.com Good idea.
